SAPHENA

DAS ENDE EINER WAHRHEIT

SAPHENA

Das Ende einer Wahrheit

CD Release

Whirlwind Records

With dust in your lungs, you put one foot before the other. One step ahead and all believes vanish into thin air. Leaving behind the horizon of faked illusions, a new time arises from the fog. Not sure whether it will pay off, you decide to go ahead.

After 10 years, one EP and two full lengths („Nutze die Zeit“, „Das Leben wird zu Glas“), „Das Ende einer Wahrheit“ („The end of a truth“) is a new beginning and the most ambitious piece of the band to date. SAPHENA combine post-metal influences and thrash elements with a distinct intuition for tight songwriting. Deep atmosphere arises to be torn down shortly after. Electronic soundscapes, a rough but tight production and the mastering of Alan Douches (CONVERGE, MASTODON) create an impressive entity.

SAPHENA - that is modern metal with German lyrics. Powerful, progressive, atmospheric.
